

I got this data from the NFL.com site about all the updated stats from every game and every year they also played in their time in the league. I got everything from the rating, TD's, passing yards, how many times they got sacked, and interceptions that they threw.

Rating	Is the quarterback overall ability to get the ball to the wr successfully
TD	Is just the amount of touchdown you get when you cross a certain line
sack	Is a player tackling you before the line of scrimmage
Passing yards	How far they threw the ball to the wr
